

Co-Founder & Treasurer, Patricia Wright - Stewart

Patricia Wright-Stewart is the Senior Vice President and partner of The Wright Resource Group and has over 20 years of leadership and management development experience, including 16 years of Human Resources Development and Training as a performance consultant and life coach to C-level executives. Patricia seizes the opportunity to utilize her skills to support the community through volunteer efforts. She has devoted countless hours to building leaders in the communities that she serves. Patricia holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Philadelphia University and various prestigious credentials which include four Global Professional Training Certifications. She seizes the opportunity to utilize her skills to support the community through volunteer efforts and devotes countless hours to building leaders in the communities that she serves.